

I am only one,

*I am only one,
I cannot do everything.
But still I can do something.
And because I cannot do everything,
I will not refuse to do the something that I can do.
Edward Everett Hale*

As usual we were blessed with an extraordinary group of volunteers who refused to do nothing. They traveled far, gave up vacations, endured physical issues, uncomfortable accommodations to do what they could to serve our Lord by bringing help and hope to those in need. This update will be dedicated to a pictorial look at the week in Clay.

Xtreme Kids Camp

A big thanks to Adam and Mary Pfahlert, TR and Barb Myers and all the volunteers who gave a helping hand to Xtreme Kids Camp. We offered, art, cheer, football, basketball, wrestling, karate, The Magic Bus and a bonus manners class. There were multiple opportunities during the day to hear the truth of God's Word.

We had an average of 70 children each day and welcomed 4 precious new souls to the Family of God during our week. Everyone enjoyed the fun time of instruction from God's Word.

Tiny House 6

The finishing touches were put on Tiny house #6 which will be going to its new homeowner the middle of July. PTL We will send an update upon placement. It is a beautiful home. Thanks to all who worked on it and who gave financial support to make it possible.

Tiny House 7

Tiny house #7 was started during the week. An amazing group got it under roof in such a short time. Looking forward to seeing the finished product.

Other Projects

There were many other projects being worked on by our great volunteers. Roofing, trophy cases, a bridge, decks and ramps, staining and painting, and a fabulous room addition.

Our Heroes

There are always a few who stand out as the silent workers who really make it all happen. We had a team of kitchen workers that made sandwiches, served, cleaned up, emptied trash, basically keeping us all going with delicious food and encouragement in the food line

Picnic

What a beautiful day. The weather was perfect, the entertainment was superb, the food was delicious, and the Gospel was shared with clarity and boldness.

Closing

We have much more to share, and we will in a couple of weeks when the tiny house is moved. There is more to see of the Picnic and fun. Many stories to tell, many lives touched by truth. You are a vital part! Thank you.

On a personal note, our 3 children and 2 of our grandsons provided worship on Sunday evening. So thankful to God for His faithfulness.

And then there's Beck.

Thanks for the prayer support
